A brief Description of Field Trip	We started a journey by bus from our college Campus at 7:30 P.M. We have reached at Santi Niketan at 11 a.m. in morning. Educational excursions not only enhance the knowledge of the students but also broaden their outlook towards the outside World. A group of 75 students were escorted by all teachers and non-Teaching staff in our college. The weekend trip included a guided tour of the Uttaryan complex, Santi Niketan Griha and the Vishwa Bharati University. The students had a wonderful time at Patha Bhavan. They were enthralled by the idea of an open-air school. In the Same day we visited the weekly market at Shonaghuni. The students were mesmerized as they saw the tribal dancers dancing rhythmically to the beats on the Madal. The students then had a wonderful time. Shopping for themselves and their dear ones. Then we are back to our college Campus at 8 p.m.

Details of Field Trip

Destination	National Museum, Kolkata
Date	13.03.2020
No of Student	M – 03+ F – 08=Total – 11
Aims and objectives	Santiniketan is a small town 212 km north of Kolkata. Rabindranath Tagore made this city famous. Thousands of tourists come here every year. In 1901, Rabindranath established a school called Brahmachari Ashram in Santiniketan, modelled on the ancient Gurukul system, from where his educational thought began. To enhance students' knowledge and broaden their outlook toward the outside world. To introduce Rabindra Tagore education thought and system in Shanti Niketan.
A brief Description of Field Trip	We started Shantiniketan Yatra at 8.30am on Friday 29th December. We reached there by 12 noon and first went to the museum after having lunch. After seeing various items collected by Rabindranath Tagore, we went to Sonajhuri Hat, on the way we saw Rabindranath Tagores "Puja Griha". As soon as we got there, we saw the tribal dance. After spending some time there, we left for home around 4.30 pm and reached around 8.30 pm.
Major Outcomes	Every student is overwhelmed by their visit to Santiniketan. They requested more such educational trips. <ol style="list-style-type: none">i) Teaching and learning with spontaneously in the lap of nature.ii) Unity and cooperative spirit among all student.iii) Proper development of hidden talent of Student.iv) Student's active and enthusiastic attitude towards learning.
