Haldia, Purba Bardhaman was invited as a resource person on that day. All the staff and students joined the programme.

. Honourable Speaker Somnath Goswami explained to the college students how to stay healthy and stress-free during the lockdown. He also told how common people including students were mentally disturbed during the period. He highlighted data and statistics about the deterioration of the education rate in the situation of COVID-19, due to which thousands of students and their families are worried about their education and future. He also said that one day the situation will be normal and we will live life as before. He gave a brief discussion on the COVID-19 pandemic history from ancient times and explained how our ancestors overcame this situation. He said, “Don’t lose hope’ You never know what tomorrow will bring for us”. The different ways of mental health were discussed and Students listened to his words with fascination. In this two-hour-long discussion, he presented the overall aspects of COVID-related issues and the question-answer session was very effective and all questions were answered by the speaker. The webinar was beneficial enough for the students to make them aware of mental health.

Outcomes

The students listened attentively to his speech got an idea about mental health and gained knowledge about what can be done to stay mentally healthy, stress-free and feet. Their skill was improved on how to protect society against the spread of the Covid-19 pandemic. They shared learning with their families and neighbours.
