Organizing by	Political Science Department
Date &Time	19.07.2019 at 11:00 a.m. (Wednesday)

Convener's	Hoimonti Banerjee, Guest Lecturer, Political Science Dept., Tehatta Sadananda Mahavidyalaya
Resource Person (Specify the theme of the lecture)	Prof. (Dr.) Nirmalya Majumdar, Political Science Kanchrapara College,
Aims and objective	The objective of the seminar was to introduce students to world politics and recent global events. The seminar increased student interest in international affairs and helped them understand the nature of politics.
description of Field Trip	All teaching staff and students were present. Freedom is a fundamental human instinct that applies to states as well. After World War II, the world rebuilt its civilization, resulting in the independence of three dozen new states in Asia, Africa, and Latin America from their colonial rulers between 1945 and 1960. Professor Dy. Nirmalya Majumdar delivered an outstanding speech on the international circumstances and relations of that time, explaining the political impact of World War II on Europe and the change in power politics. The seminar was attended by all students who gained knowledge about the politics of the Second World War, the Third World, and colonial rule. The entire event was coordinated very sincerely by Hoimonti Banerjee, Guest Faculty of the Political Science Department.
Outcomes	. All the students attended the seminar and gained knowledge about war politics, various strategies, and their impact on civil society.
