Professor in Education, Shimurali Sachidananda College of Education, in his speech shared the valuable thought and research on Sri Chaitanya religious harmony and simple life living and his contribution to the upliftment of mass people against “Brahmanical Methods of Worship”. Many Schola, researchers, and educationist presented their research papers on that day. Certificates were distributed at the end of the session. It is historic day for Tehatta Sadananda Mahavidyalaya.

Outcomes

Students gather knowledge about life and teaching, works and thoughts and contributions of Sri Chaitanya Deb in the sultanate era. The lecture delivered by the scholar and resource persons introduced students to the thought and inner meaning of Hare Krishna, Hare Rama and its importance in recent times. They also knew the religious harmony of Goudiya Vaishnav Philosophy. The skill of intensive learning grew among students about some particular topics.
