A brief
Description of the Seminar

The Bengali Department organized a Seminar on “Prachin Bharatiya Shiksha Paddhati ebong tar bartaman prasangikta” on 24.01.22 at 4:00 p.m. (IST) on Monday in Google Meet Platform (online). Dr. Amalendu Chakraborty, Vice Chancellor, of Rabindranath Thakur University, was our honorable chief guest on that day. All the students, teachers, and teaching staff joined the webinar.

During the technical session, Dr. Amalendu Chakraborty introduced the ancient Indian education system, including the Vedic and Buddhist systems, the teaching-learning process, the Gurukul education system, and the subjects taught in ancient Indian universities such as Nalanda and Taxshila. He also discussed the aims of education in ancient times and compared them with modern education. The students were deeply impressed by the discussion.

The seminar was successfully conducted by Dr. Ruchira Chandra, Assistant Professor and Head of the Bengali Department.

Outcome

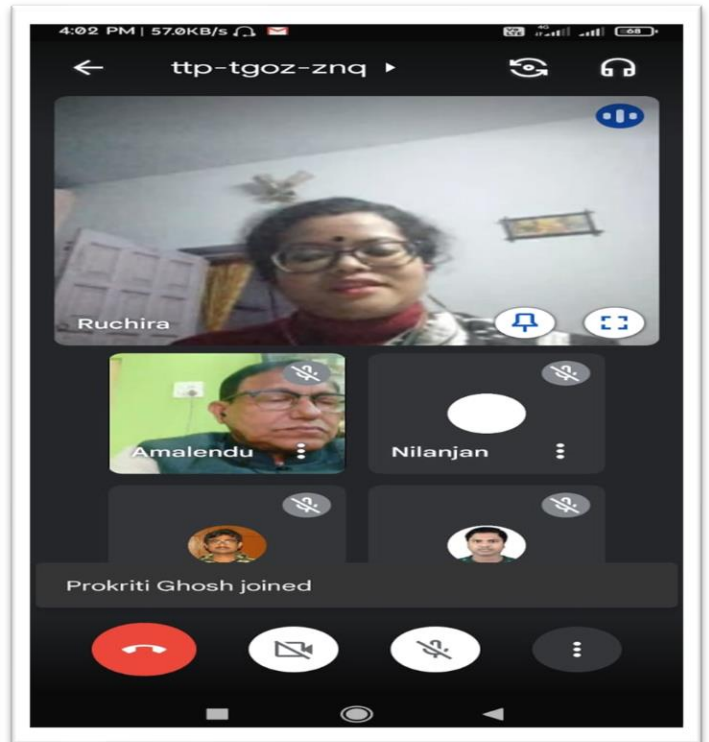

Students learned about the ancient Indian education system, including its curriculum, teaching methods, and the subjects of mathematics, reasoning, and philosophy. They gathered knowledge about the value of education in ancient times.
