COURSE OUTCOMES FOR UNDER GRADUATE
PROGRAMMES

PROGRAMME NAME: B.A (HONS.) IN PHILOSOPHY UNDER SEMESTER WITH CHOICE BASED CREDIT SYSTEM

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY
TEHATTA SADANANDA MAHAVIDYALAYA
TEHATTA, PURBA BARDHAMAN, 713122

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES OF B.A. HONS IN PHILOSOPHY

- 1. Knowledge of Indian Tradition and Culture along with a training in Western thoughts: Students after completing their graduation in Philosophy as their HONS subject would acquire knowledge of the Indian traditional philosophic thoughts as well as have a strong foothold in the Western lineage of Philosophical speculations.
- 2. Knowledge on improving interpersonal relationship and being aware of the intrinsic value of an action: Students would be able to unfold their creative consciousness and improve their mental health. They would also be able to restrain stress levels
- 3. Acquiring of Basic Competency/Skill: Students would acquire the basic competency of framing a Philosophical question. They would be able to recognize a Philosophical problem.
- 4. Acquiring the Habit to Enquire: Students would come across; the Epistemological, Ontological, Metaphysical, Ethical and Aesthetical perceptions and hence develop a sense of enquiring into any such issues or categorizing any question into these broad themes.
- 5. Skill of Logical Thinking: Students would acquire a rigorous training of the mind in understanding logical derivations. It would be possible both in case of understanding the logical framework of thoughts that a particular Philosopher must have projected in his theory and also in case of verifying an argument as valid or invalid.
- 6. Skills of Ethical Analysis: Students would for sure acquire skills in ethically judging any social issue. Here is the case where Students become specially oriented in adopting interdisciplinary study; like in the field of Law or Political Science or Medicine (medical ethics) or in business studies (business ethics) and so on and so forth

7. Knowledge of History: Students pursuing Philosophy actually have to (as a prerequisite which flourishes while they undergo the whole orientation) and do have a strong sense of history/historical events. It becomes very essential that to understand the Philosophical theory well Students needs to delve into the chronological events (actual life events or incidents which are recorded as historical facts. For example, Rene Descartes was actually a senior scholar to Newton. Newton's many theories or writings are based on the Descartes Philosophical theories.

8. Knowledge of Psychology as a major tool: Students acquire the skill of explaining the Biological, Cognitive, Behavioral and Socio-cultural perspectives of Psychology

9. Knowledge behind the Philosophy of Religion: Students would develop a better sense of tolerance and peaceful co-existence with fellow beings adding value to living habits.

10. Knowledge of blending Philosophy with Science e: It is a well-known fact that Philosophers for most part were scientist either social scientist or a practitioner and scholar in animal and plant science; for example, Plato (social scientist) or Aristotle (was an expert in Biology). So, to understand a philosopher well in terms of his Philosophy Students have to understand the particular field of science he was interested in; of which the output may be his Philosophical thinking.

11. Acquiring Language skill: Students pursuing Philosophy must have a strong hold on Language. Students undergo a continuous training of both abstract thinking and how to put these thoughts in words. Putting or choosing the right word/expression (philosophical) becomes almost a true habit of students.

12. Research Skills: Innovative thinking and learning leading to the tuning of the student in their Graduation level itself needed for Research is well acquired by students. The Love for wisdom truly, makes a deep mark on the learning habits of students.
